Leadership Cape May County is a program designed to develop informed, committed and qualified business, community, and civic leaders for Cape May County. Using models previously established by successful Leadership programs held around the United States, Leadership Cape May County will take an intensive look into the issues affecting our area and prepare participants to provide quality, dynamic leadership throughout the County.

Participants are selected on the basis of leadership ability, demonstrated interest within the community, professional achievement, and potential for responsible and effective leadership. This program seeks visionaries and those committed to serving others for the good of the community.

This application and all supporting materials must be submitted by Tuesday, June 30, 2015 at 12:00pm to be considered. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed or accepted after that date. Applicants must be 21 years of age by September 1, 2015. THERE IS NO FEE TO APPLY.
